I planned it all, planned it perfectly; the thought of Mickey, his labored breathing on the phone to complement my fantasy, my fingers inside of me, my knees up closer to my chest and my legs spread. This book is funny and very readable.

Before this moment, Rousseau insists, the life of the child has been purely self. Christians continue to study and live out the Gospel, they can learn, as Jesus did, how to conform their life to the example of the Father.
